

Hello!
We are Matt & Marcy... & Duke!

Thank you for taking the time to look at our profile and for considering us in such an important decision. We can't begin to imagine the love and strength it takes to make an adoption plan, and we deeply admire your courage. Our greatest hope is to provide a child with a life filled with love, joy, faith, and family. ❤️

ABOUT US

We hope that by looking at our photos and reading about our lives, you will find comfort in knowing how much we want to share our lives with a child. We look forward to the day of meeting you and getting to know you!

We met while working in the youth program at our church. Shortly after meeting, we had our first date at Chick-fil-A and knew we would one day get married. We have now been married 7 wonderful years and continue falling in love with each other every day. We are excited for this journey of adoption and to grow our family.

Meet Marcy

written by Matt

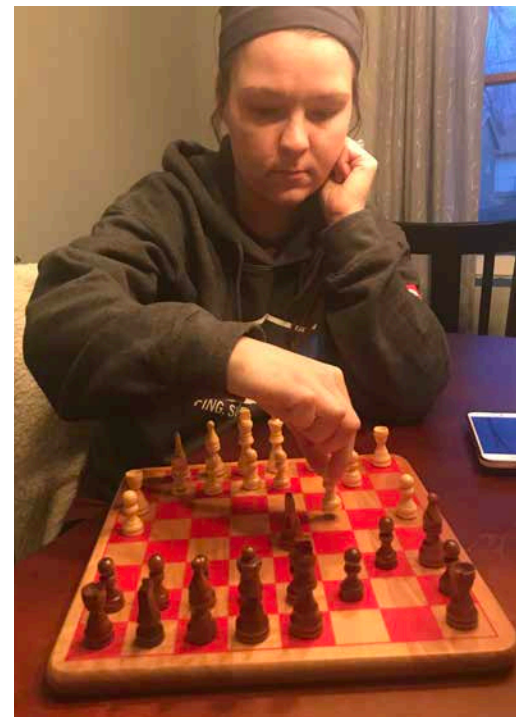

Marcy grew up in North Dakota with loving parents and two siblings. She enjoyed playing tennis and volleyball, along with spending time with her friends and family. While she loved North Dakota, her nieces and nephews were in South Dakota, where she moved after college. For the last 6 years, Marcy has been working at a dental office, where she enjoys building relationships and helping everyone who walks through the door. Before the dental office, Marcy worked with agencies to help provide victims of domestic violence with a new life and a safe place to stay. Her passion is for women and children to have the opportunity to feel safe and loved. Marcy plans to be a stay-at-home mother to our future children.

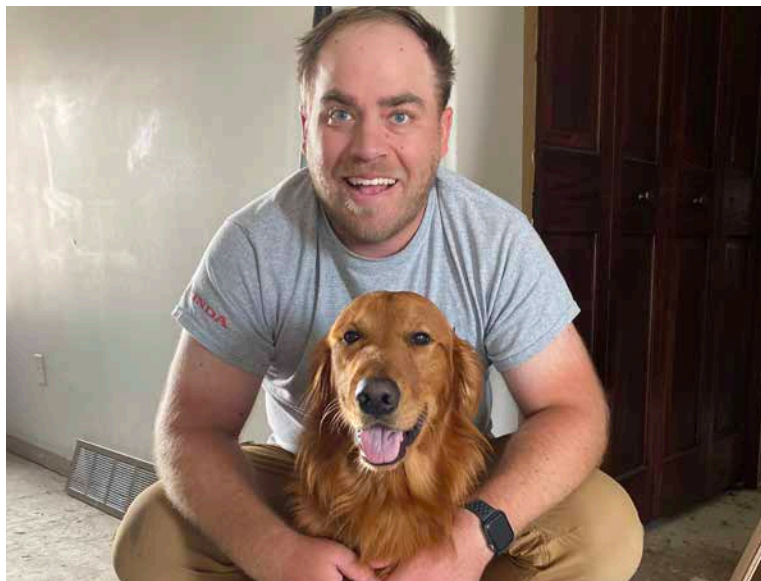

What I want to tell you about Marcy is that she is caring, joyful, patient, intentional, and a loving person who has longed to be a mother. She is my rock, and I can't wait to see how she blossoms as a mother.

Meet Matt

written by Marcy

Matt has been my answered prayer. He quickly became my best friend and favorite person. Matt grew up on a farm outside of a small town in South Dakota with his parents and two siblings. He enjoyed playing sports and developed a passion for woodworking. For the last 4 years, he has been working for a construction company and quickly became a project manager for a custom home builder. He hopes one day to build our family a house and provide plenty of space for our family to grow.

What I want you to know about Matt is that he is a hard worker, patient, loving, kind-hearted, and a supportive husband who has a servant's heart and loves providing. He always thinks about others and how he can help bring joy into their lives.

Duke!

Meet our Golden Retriever, Duke! He has a big heart for people and loves spending time with those around him. His favorite things to do are playing ball, running at the farm, cuddling, and going on walks. Our nieces and nephews always look forward to playing with him. Duke looks forward to having another friend to play with.

THOUGHTS ON ADOPTION

Adoption is a beautiful thing that puts the child's needs first. It's an example of our Heavenly Father's love for us, as He has adopted us into His family. Your decision to make an adoption plan for your baby is one we respect and admire greatly. We promise to cherish and love your child by providing a safe and happy home with every opportunity possible.

“Adoption is a beautiful thing that puts the child's needs first.”

THANK YOU.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for considering us as potential parents for your precious child. We cannot begin to imagine the depth of love and courage it takes to make an adoption plan, and we want you to know that we honor and respect you for it.

Our promise is simple yet steadfast: to provide a safe, joyful, faith-filled home where your child will be deeply loved, cherished, and supported. We will raise them to know their story, to honor where they came from, and to always feel proud of the love that surrounded them from the very beginning.

Please know that, no matter what, you will always hold a special place in our hearts and in the story of our family. We are committed to walking this journey with grace, gratitude, and unwavering love.

♥ With love, Matt & Marcy
